TILP hosts reception for Localisation Teaching, Training and Research Network (LttN) at Localisation World Barcelona

The Institute of Localisation Professionals (TILP) is pleased to host a cocktail reception on the eve of the pre-conference day of the Barcelona Localisation World Conference in the beautiful surroundings of the Patio Garden of the Fira Palace Hotel.

Monday, 29 May 2006
19:00 – 21:00
Hotel Fira Palace, Barcelona

This reception will provide a unique opportunity for those involved in localisation-related teaching, training and research in academic institutions, to network and meet colleagues from around the globe.

In addition, TILP will provide information on its Certified Localisation Professional (CLP) programme and, specifically, information on how to become a TILP Accredited CLP Course Provider. Information on existing accredited course providers, access to TILP accredited shared course material and the new distribution of the LRC Localisation Tools and Technology (LOTS) Distribution will also be available.

The reception will be hosted, on behalf of TILP, by Reinhard Schäler (CEO, TILP) and Debbie Folaron (Université Concordia, Montréal).

Registration

Attendance is free-of-charge, however registration is required. To register, please send an email to info@tilponline.org by Monday, 22 May 2006.

About TILP

The Institute of Localisation Professionals (TILP) has the primary aim of developing professional practices in localisation globally. TILP is a non-profit organisation, owned by its members and lead by a Council elected at its Annual General Meeting. TILP accredits course providers and certifies localisation professionals under its Certified Localisation Programme (CLP). TILP also organises regular Ask the Experts session for TILP members. For more information on TILP and to apply for membership visit www.tilponline.org

About LttN

LttN, the Localisation Teaching, Training and Research Network is a network of academic organisations involved in the teaching and training of localisation professionals and in research into localisation-related issues. It operates as a special interest group within The Institute of Localisation Professionals (TILP). Membership of the LttN is free. However, individual members have to be members of The Institute of Localisation Professionals (TILP) and be educators in a third-level institution. They must apply individually to join the LttN.
